Dishrag Soup & Poverty Cake

Idaho Potluck of Essays on Food

This “potluck” explores recipes and more through the secret ingredients of community, friendship, family and memory. Forty-three contributors from Coeur d’Alene to Pocatello offer culinary tales and recipes worth sharing. As the introduction states, it’s not so much a cookbook per se, but an eclectic mix of poignant and humorous stories of the people behind the food: a Nez Perce root-gathering mentor; a professor mixing politics and blue berry pancakes; survivors of the Great Depression who made soup from almost nothing. ($15.00 + tax)

Idaho Wilderness Considered

an anthology of essays, photos, and other reflections

An anthology of essays, photos, and other reflections in commemoration of the 50th anniversary of the Wilderness Act and the establishment of new wilderness areas in Idaho in 2015. The book features contributions by 25 Idahoans, including an interview with Governor Cecil Andrus on his life in conservation, an essay by U.S. Congressman Mike Simpson on Boulder-White Clouds legislation, and more. ($15.00 + tax).

Latinos in Idaho: Celebrando Cultura

Explores the History & Culture of Latinos In Idaho

Compiled as a documentary mix of history and cultural study, the 96-page book offers background on Latino presence in Idaho and also serves as a how-to manual on planning a cultural festival in other communities.

Latinos in Idaho evolved from the collaboration of the Idaho Humanities Council, Nampa’s Hispanic Cultural Center of Idaho, and other agencies and individuals to create a first-time, three-day cultural festival in Nampa, Idaho, in September of 2000 called Fiesta Idaho. ($10.00 + tax)
