

Dun & Bradstreet D-U-N-S® Number Guide

Decide with Confidence

The U.S. Federal Government requires all existing and potential Contract Vendors and Federal Grantees or Cooperative Agreement Applicants to have a D-U-N-S Number. The D-U-N-S Number is used to accurately identify an organization's legal name and address information for companies receiving Contract Awards or Funding for Grants and Cooperative Agreements. This ensures consistent data in electronic Contract and Grant Award systems.

Data Universal Numbering System (D-U-N-S) Number: The D-U-N-S Number is a unique nine-digit identification number provided by Dun & Bradstreet (D&B). The D-U-N-S Number is site-specific. Therefore, each distinct physical location of an entity (such as branches, divisions, and headquarters) may be assigned a D-U-N-S Number. In order to provide on-the-spot D-U-N-S Number assignment, D&B does not control or limit who may request or receive a D-U-N-S Number. It is the organization's responsibility to manage their D-U-N-S Numbers (see below).

Obtaining a D-U-N-S Number: You should verify your D-U-N-S Number or take the steps needed to obtain a new D-U-N-S Number as soon as possible if there is a possibility you will be applying for future Contracts or Federal grants. Managing your D-U-N-S Number: D&B periodically contacts organizations with D-U-N-S Numbers to verify a company's information is accurate. Organizations with multiple D-U-N-S Numbers may request a free family tree listing from D&B to help determine what branches/divisions have numbers and whether the information is current. Please call the dedicated toll-free D-U-N-S Number request line at 1-866-705-5711 to request your family tree. D&B recommends that organizations with multiple D-U-N-S Numbers have a single point of contact for controlling D-U-N-S Number requests to ensure that the appropriate branches/divisions have D-U-N-S Numbers for Federal purposes. If you already have a D-U-N-S Number: You should use that number on all of your applications. It is not necessary to request another D-U-N-S Number from D&B for every new application or contract award.
